REPORT

- As India adapts to the new normal after pandemic, the Finance Bill 2021 introduced in the Lok Sabha by the Finance Minister Smt. Nirmala Sitharaman displayed colours restraint, resilience and self reliance. The Union budget 2021 embodied the ‘less is more’ approach in an effort to purge the Indian economy afflicted by a yearlong slowdown caused by coronavirus outbreak.
- To analyse the Union Budget 2021 in a better way a special lecture on Union Budget 2021: Post Analysis was organized by the Nand Kishore Khanna Commerce Faculty of S.S. Khanna Girls’ Degree College on 13th February, 2021.
- The eminent speaker for the session was Dr. Himanshu Srivastav, Department of Commerce and Business Administration, University of Allahabad. Dr. Srivastava highlighted on the several measures announced by the Government for the benefit of individual and small/medium tax payers. He apprised the students with the various key tax incentives introduced by the government.
- Dr Himanshu Srivastava discussed the theme of the budget i.e. SANKALP. He also mentioned that this budget was the first digital budget and informed the students about the six pillars of the Union Budget 2021.
- The welcome was done by Dr Neerja Sachdeva, Coordinator Commerce Faculty and the vote of thanks was given by Dr. Meena Chaturvedi. All the faculty members were present.
