ABOUT THE COLLEGE

The idea of uplifting girl education among all sections of the society and the need of emancipation of women led Late S.N. Kakkar and Late Prof. D.D. Khanna to lay the foundation of S.S. Khanna Girls' Degree College, a Constituent of University of Allahabad in the International Year of Women 1975.

For sustaining high standards in teaching and continuous efforts in promoting girl education, the institution has been accredited Grade 'A' by NAAC. The institution has also been identified as 'College with Potential for Excellence' by the University Grants Commission.

CONFERENCE THEME

Our Constitutional order vests in Courts a jurisdiction to do justice, at once omnipresent and omnipotent, but controlled and guided by the refined yet flexible censor called judicial discretion.

Discretion is extra-ordinary in its amplitude. Its limit, when it chases injustice, is the sky itself. It shall be exercised by the Judges of the land with scrupulous adherence to judicial principles well established by precedents. A Judge is not a knight errant roaming at will in pursuit of his own ideal of beauty or of justice.

In this backdrop, the present conference is being organized to provide an opportunity to discuss and deliberate the theme in detail.

Objectives:

1. To bring together academicians, researchers, professionals and practitioners.
2. To deliberate and discuss the emerging trends in judicial governance.
3. To ensure significant and positive outcome by sharing vibrant ideas.
4. To publish a comprehensive literature on the topic.

Sub-themes:

1. Judicial Overreach: When Required as a Necessary Evil
2. Averting Judicial Overreach
3. Judicial Overreach: A Dangerous Terrain
4. Balancing Individual and State Rights
5. Judicial Activism to Judicial Adventurism: Defining Limits
6. Judicial Discretion: Canalised Authority, Not Arbitrary Eccentricity
