About the College

Sadanlal Sanwaldas Khanna Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Prayagraj, was established In the International year for Women, 1975, by the joint efforts of late S.N. Kakkar (Ex- Union Minister, of India), Prof. D.D. Khanna (Ex-Head of Department of Defence Studies, University of Allahabad) and Sri Shyam Narain Kapoor, members of the Khattri Pathshala

Society with the motto "आ नो भद्रा: क्रतवो यन्तु विश्वतः (Let noble thoughts come to us from every side.)". The college has grown from a single faculty to composite institution where in education is being imparted in the faculty of Arts, Science, Commerce, Teacher- Education and Law at the under-graduate level. Post-Graduate and Ph.D programmes are also offered. The college is exclusively for women and aims to cater the needs of students belonging to diverse socio-economic backgrounds, and fulfill the objective of cultivating moral, intellectual, spiritual, social, and emotional values for holistic development of the students. In order to economically empower the girl students, enhance their employability through skill sets designed for value addition and to create a vibrant local innovation ecosystem the Institution has a well established Institution's Innovation Council, an Initiative of MoE, GoI with a four star rating.

The Institution is a Constituent College of the Central University of Allahabad. It has been Accredited at "A" Grade in 2014 & 2021 and has been awarded the status of "College with Potential for Excellence". With the continuous efforts to move towards excellence the three departments of the College- Chemistry, Botany and Zoology, have been selected under strengthening component of DBT star college scheme and DST CURIE grant.
